E. Hanson – stated that people left Town Meeting on Saturday confused because of the change capping the money. Asked about the road issues that were brought up at Town Meeting, Reeves and Jones road.

Selectman C. Oakes responded to the question- she and the Public Works employee did a road check today and there was no large hole on the Town owned part of the Jones road there were a few wheel ruts due to the frost coming out of the road. The issue on the Reeves Rd. is the area that was not repaired last summer, the area that was repaired is holding.

A Sprague- Where will the money go that we voted on this year for the roads. T. M. – responded the Board has not yet put together the road work plan. It was also stated from the Board we need to see what happens to the roads during mud season before we make a final plan.

E. Nevells- Spoke to about his comments at town meeting he felt it was information that the public should have he was bring attention to what he felt that they needed these facts. Top share what information that wasn’t in the town re[port surplus, carrying accounts, and TIF not included. He would have brought this forward but didn’t have a budget at the public hearing.

V. Corliss – Asked the Fire Chief if they had any fund raising plans for the new station, no they do not.
